

2006-2007 Notice of Disclosure of Student Directory Information

Each year Grapevine-Colleyville ISD must notify parents and students concerning disclosure of student directory information under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), which gives parents the right to privacy of student record information, is a federal law which applies to public schools and state or local education agencies that receive federal educational funds. Parents must make a decision and inform the District as to whether they consent or do not consent to the release of directory information.

Certain information about District's students is considered directory information and will be released to anyone who follows the procedures for requesting the information unless the parent or guardian objects to the release of the directory information about the student. If you do not want Grapevine-Colleyville ISD to disclose directory information from your child's education records without your prior consent; you must notify the District in writing by September 1, 2006. Grapevine-Colleyville ISD has designated the following as directory information: student's name, address, telephone number, email address, date and place of birth, grade level, photographs, most recent educational institution attended, dates of attendance, major fields of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of athletic participants, honors and awards received.

Please Note: If you object to the disclosure of directory information, Grapevine-Colleyville ISD will not be able to include such information in student directories, student yearbooks or District publications (such as athletic game programs, concert programs, commencement programs, group or individual photos, cable school news segments, GCISD website, broadcast media, or District press releases to broadcast media, newspapers or other publications). You also may provide your consent to the release of such information for only such purposes in the space provided below. If you consent to the release of all directory information, it can be used for such purposes.

CHECK ONE BOX ONLY (Failure to check any box or return this form will be treated as consent to release directory information.):

- I consent to the release of directory information.
- I consent to the release of directory information for limited school-sponsored purposes only, including student directories, student yearbooks and District publications.
- I object to the release of all directory information.

For High School: Release of Information to Military Recruiters or Institutions of Higher Education.

Federal law requires districts receiving assistance under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. § 6301, et seq.) to provide a military recruiter or an institution of higher education, on request, with the name, address, and telephone number of a secondary student unless the parent has advised the district that the parent does not want the student's information disclosed without the parent's prior written consent. If you do not wish to have your student's information released, please check the box below.

- I object to the release of my student's name, address, and telephone number to a military recruiter or to an institution of higher education.
